

Week 1: June 10-14, 2019

FISHING CAMP

Let's Go Fish! Each day campers travel on St. Luke busses to a different area lake. Experienced fishermen will teach angling basics. Campers with all levels of fishing experience are welcome. Worms and lures will be provided along with a snack and plenty of water. Please remember to bring bug spray, sunscreen, and a towel. Fishing Camp is a wonderful opportunity to sink a line, get comfortable and reel in the big one! Ages: Completed 3rd – 7th grades; Cost: $125 per camper; Time: 8:00 am – 12:30 pm; Camp Director: Allen Webb

MATH-TAGIOUS CAMP

Join us for an interactive, hands-on, minds on good time with mathematics! We will explore and solve challenges, play games and engage in hands-on learning activities. Be careful though! The fun and learning is contagious! It spreads quickly from instructors to campers. Designed for students who love math... or for those who hate it. Campers will be encouraged to think outside the classroom and see how math is related to "real life" through activities, problem solving and discussions. Side effects of this camp may include: laughing at nerdy jokes, knowing answers to puzzles parents can't solve and love for all things numbers. Ages: Completed 2nd – 4th grades; Cost: $85 per camper; Time: 9 am – 12 noon; Camp Director: CSU Math Collaborative

PRIME POWER CAMP

Are you into robots, sports, rockets, games, technology, art, or puzzle challenges? Then you are interested in mathematics! Whether you know it or you nerd it, this camp is for you! Math is so much more than numbers, worksheets, drills, and homework. Come and explore these topics with hands-on activities to see how math is used in the real world! Whether you love math or it is your least favorite subject – this camp has a place for you. Ages: Completed 5th – 8th grades; Cost: $85 per camper; Time: 9 am – 12 noon; Camp Director: CSU Math Collaborative

STEAM KIDS JR CAMP

This exciting camp gives girls and boys opportunities to explore, make and solve using concepts of Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math. Campers work individually and in groups to solve daily STEAM challenges, have free-choice time at STEAM Stations and plan & work on a week-long project as a team to solve a current Real-World STEAM issue. STEAM camp features crafts, slime making, various science experiments, building simple robots, and taking a field trip to a local recycling center or animal shelter. Ages: Completed Kindergarten – 2nd Grades; Cost: $125 per camper; Time: 9 am – 12 noon; Camp Director: Jen Grantham
